

FinTech Trade Missions to Asia & Europe

Are you a FinTech looking for market access opportunities in Singapore, London or Paris?

TFI is inviting Canadian FinTechs from across the country to participate in business missions to Singapore, London and Paris. The missions will help your FinTech company expand to international markets and discover export opportunities through curated B2B programming, promotional opportunities, conference exposure, pre-mission workshops and high-calibre networking.

Highlights

- B2B matchmaking & stakeholder engagement
- TFI support before, during and after the mission
- Pre-mission, market-export workshop
- High-calibre networking opportunities

Included

- Flights to market
- Per diem expenses
- Presence at international conference (ticket included)
- Marketing collateral profiling your company
- Export support and overview from in-market experts
